

Newark's Downtown Churches

Good Friday 'The Way of the Cross'

An Interdenominational Procession Giving Witness to Our Beliefs

March 30, 2018

12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m.

Seven historic Newark churches will take part in the 34th Annual “Way of the Cross” procession on Good Friday, March 30, 2018 from 12 noon to 3 p.m. This ecumenical event, recalling the walk of Jesus to his crucifixion on Golgotha, has been sponsored every year since 1985 by Newark’s Downtown Clergy Association. At each stop, a member of the clergy will give a brief message about one of the “Seven Last Words” of Jesus and participants will sing hymns.

Members of any church or people with no religious affiliation are welcome to join or leave the observance at any point along the way. This event is rain or shine. For more information visit www.peddiechurch.org or call 973-642-2552.

12:00 noon	The House of Prayer “Father, forgive them for they know not what they do”	407 Broad Street (alongside Route I-280)
12:30 p.m.	North Reformed Church “Truly, I say to you, today you shall be with me in paradise.”	510 Broad Street (across from Washington Park)
12:55 p.m.	Saint Patrick’s Pro- Cathedral “Woman, behold your Son! Behold your Mother!”	91 Washington Street (at Central Avenue)
1:20 p.m.	First Baptist Peddie Memorial Church “My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”	572 Broad Street (at Central Avenue)
1:45 p.m.	Trinity and St. Philip’s Cathedral “I thirst”	Broad and Rector Street (in Military Park)
2:15 p.m.	First Presbyterian Church in Newark “It is finished”	820 Broad Street (south of Market Street)
2:40 p.m.	Grace Church “Father, into your hands I commend my Spirit.”	950 Broad Street (at Walnut Street)