

Worship Preparation Checklist

- Start focused prayer a week in advance.
 - Give thanks for the opportunity to serve. Seek guidance and God's anointing. Ask for humility and courage.
- Study the sermon theme and Scripture references.
 - Seek out Scriptures that complement the theme.
- Focus on your purpose and the essentials.
 - Remember, you are leading corporate worship, not personal worship and corporate prayer not personal prayer.
- Be familiar with (memorize) the lyrics.
 - Sing with the intent to convey meaning, emotion, and connection with God and His people.
- Practice, Practice, Practice.
 - Speak with clarity, be mindful of your posture and solicit input from your living mirrors.
- Begin Sabbath on Saturday at sunset.
 - Start by quieting your mind; yearn to be in God's presence.
- Energize before service.
 - Remember, worship is spiritual and physical. Rest and hydrate.
- Come prepared to meet with God.
 - Arrive at least thirty minutes early to commune and bow down in the presence of God.
- Know your place.
 - Know which microphone to use and sit close by.
